F. JEZZARD & SON.

DR. CLARENCE S. ORDWAY,
Residence at Mrs. C. Webb's, on Second St.
Phone, 654-2.

—Miss Nellie Britten and Miss Odella Kehn of Luckey spent Sunday with Mrs. Britten and family.

—Wm. Rigg and wife of Warren, O., were guests of Haskins and Perryburg friends the first of the week.

—Pimples, faded complexion, chapped skin red, rough hands, eczema, tetter, bad blood, cured in a short time, with Rocky Mountain Tea, the great complexion restorer. Champney's Pharmacy.

—D. K. Hollenbeck has purchased the lot adjoining the centennial block and will erect an elegant brick block thereon in the Spring. This will be an improvement which will add materially to the appearance of the business part of the village. The lot is a very desirable location and our people wish Mr. Hollenbeck good luck with his purchase.

—Foley's Honey and Tar is best for croup and whooping cough, contains no opiates, and cures quickly. Careful mothers keep it in the house. Sold by C. P. Champney.

—Mrs. Clara VanNorman has commenced suit for $3000 damages against the Toledo & Maumee Valley and the Toledo, Bowling Green & Southern traction lines for alleged injuries sustained in a head on collision on the T. & M. V. last July between cars of the defendant companies. Mrs. Emeline Clifford has also sued the T. & M. V. and the T. B. G. & S. for $3,000, for damages sustained at the same time.

—Winter coughs are apt to result in consumption if neglected. They can be soon broken up by using Foley's Honey and Tar. For sale by C. P. Champney.

—FOR RENT.—The home of the late Mr. Callard, Front street, Perryburg, commanding a fine view of Maumee and the river. A large comfortable house. A most desirable summer residence. C. A. POWERS, Agent 4717

—Mrs. Kittie Paves Meagley and baby of Poplar, Montana, arrived in Toledo on Tuesday and is the guest of her brother, Mr. Hayes and wife but will reach Perryburg in a few days. Mr Meagley has been transferred to an agency in Nebraska and while moving to the new location Mrs. Meagley and the baby will visit in Perryburg where many friends will be pleased to meet her.

—Closing out a few good things in Boy's Underwear cheap. Not all sizes but some of the best. A. C. FULLER.

—FOR SALE CHEAP.—Good draft horse. Enquire of G. W. Hoffmann, 4817

—Geo. Siler is expecting to go to Michigan with his family to locate on their farm near Saginaw, and about 25 of Mrs. Siler's lady friends who regret her departure, decided to surprise her by sending her a substantial token of their love and good wishes. They purchased a complete and beautiful dinner set and with a letter bearing their names and conveying their best wishes it was sent to the lady who was completely surprised.

—Kidney complaint kills more people than any other disease. This is due to the disease being so insidious that it gets a good hold on the system before it is recognized. Foley's Kidney Cure will prevent the development of fatal diseases if taken in time. For sale by C. P. Champney.

—Let the JOURNAL supply your magazines and other periodicals for 1903. We receive subscriptions for any publication in the world and save you the trouble of sending your orders.

—B. A. Lawrence of North Baltimore, has purchased the William Barnes farm south of Perryburg on the river, of 120 acres for $9,700.

—Haskins K. O. T. M. entertained the lodge from B. G. on Monday night. The visitors were met at the electric railway line and given a sleighride to Haskins where they witnessed the initiation of a large number by the Haskins lodge. The Lady Maccabees provided an elaborate banquet which was served at the G. A. R. hall which was greatly enjoyed.

—An innocent item in the JOURNAL last week seems to have caused trouble for the Stony Ridge postmaster. The item was a local advertisement for a married man to work on a dairy farm etc., and the address given was three initials and Stony Ridge the town. Now the Postmaster says he has a lot of mail matter for the address mentioned in the ad. but that nobody has called for the mail. This proves that advertising pays.

Dance of the Woodmen.

On the evening of Monday, Feb. 23, the Woodmen of the World will give their next grand ball at the town hall. Their dances are being well attended. They have the best of music and are giving their patrons splendid entertainment. They are giving these dances to secure money to pay for their new band instruments. Tickets, 50 cents per couple.
